The Direct Bag Service

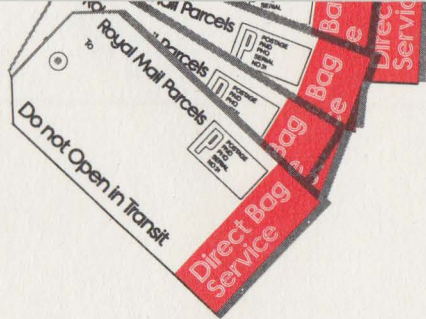

The Royal Mail Direct Bag Service is the common sense, cost-effective way to distribute your goods in a wide variety of situations. Especially for goods to retail outlets.

How the Service Works

We give you a parcel bag; you then fill it with your goods to a maximum weight of 22.5kg. There's no need for the goods inside the bag to be individually addressed, and although you will want to make sure your goods are adequately protected, packaging can be minimal. You then address the special bag label which we'll give you, make sure it carries your Printed Postage Impression (PPI) and tie it with a distinctive plastic tie we'll provide. The bag then goes direct to its destination, and the consignment is delivered together.

Cash on Delivery

Maybe you'd like us to arrange payment for your goods? If so, we have facilities to collect money from the recipient of your goods.

Returned Goods

And what about getting your goods back with a minimum of fuss to the sender? Well, we can supply special labels to ensure that the sender pays nothing.

Receipt On Delivery

This can be arranged by simply using a serially numbered label — we'll provide you with these — attached to the bag label. We will then obtain a signature from the recipient before delivering the bag.

SPECIAL OFFER
Don't just take our word — test the service with our special '5 Free Bag Offer'. Simply fill in and send off the detachable section of this leaflet and we will be in touch.
